

Special Judgement & Decision-Making Workshop: A Tribute to Prof. Ilana Ritov

Thursday, June 27, 2024

Registration (no fees required):

<https://forms.gle/zquhiEhqYliGvYidA>

PROGRAM

10:00	Registration & Refreshments
10:30	Opening comments Yoella Bereby-Meyer (Head of DMEP, BGU) Miki Malul (Dean GGFBM, BGU)
10:40	Joachim Meyer (TAU)	Behavioral decision-making in the age of AI
11:05	Shoham Choshen-Hillel (HUJI)	Empathy for the pain of others: Sensitivity to the individual, not to the collective
Short Talks
11:30	Guy Hochman (Reichman)	Financial risk tolerance during a major negative life experience: The case of the COVID-19 pandemic
11:45	Roi Zultan (BGU)	Father, don't forgive them, for they could have known what they're doing
12:00	Eliran Halali (Bar Ilan)	Giving farm animals a name and a face: Eliciting animal advocacy among omnivores using the identifiable victim effect
12:15	Lunch Break

Short Talks
13:30	Tehila Kogut (BGU)	The identified victim effect: Causes and boundary conditions
13:48	Simone Moran (BGU)	Multi-issue negotiations
14:06	Amos Schurr (BGU)	Negotiating all vs. part of the seller's endowment
14:24	Uriel Haran (BGU)	On being actively open-minded, searching for information and listening to advice
14:42	Hagit Sabato (HUJI)	Choosing to know: Children's decision to reveal social information and their sharing behavior
15:00	Coffee Break
15:30	Introduction to session with special international guests (Some of the talks will be given online but will be broadcast exclusively to workshop attendees)
15:40	Barbara Mellers (Wharton, UPenn)	What I did with my summer vacations
16:00	Jon Baron (UPenn)	Cognitive biases and the troubles of the world
16:20	Keynote - George Loewenstein (CMU)	Affect, deliberation and choice: Thoughts on some of the central themes in the work of Ilana Ritov
17:00	Ilana Ritov (HUJI)
18:00	Dinner (self-sponsored)

VENUE

Harry and Carol Saal Auditorium (#202), Alon Building for Hi-Tech (#37), Ben-Gurion University of the Negev

Parking is in visitor parking lots on Ben-Gurion Blvd:
1) Opposite Soroka Hospital, entry to campus at gate across from the hospital
2) At the BGU Sports Center – entry to campus up the steps to the bridge walkway leading to the northeast gate

Building 37 is at the northeast side of campus.
Walking from Beer Sheva North-University Train Station:
Exit train station and walk up the ramp to the right, to the bridge leading to the campus northeast gate. Upon entrance, Building 37 will be in front of you.

